Virtual meeting is held under the chairmanship of Dr. sk. Ataura Rahaman. Dr. Rahaman, Principal of the college, welcomes the members in this meeting. He thanks the honourable members for being present here.

1) Ratification of previous resolution

Dr. Subhas Singha Roy is requested to read the previous resolutions and all other members are requested to comment upon it.

There is no such amendment, the resolutions of the previous meeting are accepted unanimously. After deliberation following resolutions of this meeting are adopted:

2) Plan for the session-2020-2021:

- a) Online Teaching Learning in neo-normal

- b) Motivating the students
- c) Reorientation of the teachers in this methods
- d) Webinar organization

Amidst the lockdown throughout India, the teaching-learning like sectors got a severe jolt. Academia and the student community became perplexed. All activities were stopped. It was an existential crisis. IQAC resolves, hence, to get the faculty members habituated with the neo-normal situation.

Digital platforms should be used extensively. For this, necessary preparations are needed like email collections, whatsapp group formation, e-materials sharing through Google classrooms, whatsapp and other media etc.

Members extend thanks to the Principal for introducing college apps for multi-purpose uses. Faculty members need to be prepared for this digital presentation and they should be trained in these methods.

It is resolved that webinars and online workshops be organized from time to time.

3) Awareness generation:

Resolved that the awareness generation is the best option available from the onslaught of covid. Students will be given emphasis; colleagues will also be counseled. NSS volunteers and PProgramme Officers will be asked to take necessary steps in this regard. At least immediate neighbors will be made aware about the dangers of covid.

4) Counseling the students

Students must be counseled. Mentors should take initiatives to interact with the students for the betterment of their physical and mental health.

Counseling is the best medicine in this unprecedented circumstance.

Resolved that discussions by the experts on this topic be organized.

All possible help to be extended to the students.

5) One week Online international Workshop

Resolved that an international workshop not less than one week to be organized on the issue of Covid-19 and impact in India. Librarian of our college is entrusted to take the lead in this regard. Dr. Sk. Ataur Rahaman advised to collaborate with other colleges if possible.

Miscellaneous

Resolved that continuous communication with the students and other colleagues are required.

Meeting ends with the best wishes to all concerned.

Meeting starts under the chairmanship of Dr. Sk. Ataur Rahaman. Dr. Rahaman enquires about the health conditions of all the colleagues.

Dr. Subhas Singha Roy, Coordinator IQAC, expects that all the members are healthy physically and psychologically.

1) He then reads out the previous resolutions and requests the members to ratify the same. Unanimously the resolutions of the previous meeting are ratified.

2) The Corona pandemic has a devastating effect on the whole student community and academia. In this context, keeping physical and mental well-being appears to be the top priority.

Yet it is the duty of the teachers to counsel the students and to bring them into online classes.

Resolved that students email IDs to be collected as much as possible to include them into the online teaching-learning procedures.

Mentors will be asked to keep constant in touch with the students.

3) All the faculty members will be re-oriented in this methodology. Some of the teachers facing the issue of using the digital platform will be trained.

Resolved that a workshop on using Google Meet and other extension platforms will be organized.

- 4) The problems of rural college students are manifold. Majority of the students come from agricultural background and from lower-middle class families. Bearing the cost of Android phone and maintenance of recurring expenditure is a major issue. Resolved that the faculty members if they come forward to assist the needy students financially, then problem can somehow be managed. Principal is requested to take the issue to the Staff Council. As usual the Ice-breaking session will be organized to acquaint the students about the academic curriculum. Parent-teacher meeting to be organized. Webinar/workshop to be organized. Class schedule to be followed. If any change, prior intimation to the students to be done. E-resources through digital platforms and college Apps be supplied. Mentor-mentee classes to be organized on a regular basis.

Department of Political Science is congratulated for a successful completion National Level Webinar for the first time in West Bengal in collaboration with Malda College.

As no other issue to discuss, the meeting ends with thanks to the chair.
