DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

PROGRAM SPECIFIC OUTCOME

[HONOURS & GENERAL]

English Literature courses in the Department of English expose students to a wide range of writing from British, American and Indian tradition and culture and theory. It helps students explore how writers use the creative resources of language-in fiction, poetry, nonfiction prose, and drama-to explore the entire range of human experience. Students are expected to strive, to be imaginative, rhetorically dexterous, and technically proficient and as a result, to gain a deeper insight into life. UG syllabus at Chandidas Mahavidyalaya will help students build skills of analytical and interpretive argument, and become careful and critical readers. They will learn the use of language as a means of creative expression, will make them effective thinkers and communicators — qualities which are crucial for choosing careers in our information-intensive society.

Specific learning outcomes for English courses include the following:

Reading: Students will gain awareness about the best literary traditions of the world. By learning how others live and handle their lives, one becomes connected with the world in a way we might not otherwise experience. They can gain courage and strength by living vicariously through well-developed characters. Through reading students will have awareness for varied perspectives. This will also expand their range of experience and in the process they will learn to be more empathetic toward the plight of others.

Awareness about Culture and History: Students gain an understanding of the relations between culture, history and texts. They learn to use texts as a gateway to various cultural traditions and interpret them in their historical contexts.

Gaining of Critical Insight: With the help of their knowledge of various critical theories it is expected that they will be able to construct their own meaning about the reality and historical situations.

Issue of Sexuality and Gender: Literature course teaches a student to believe that one's own sense of identity is not enough to persuade the rest of the world to agree. Human beings are no longer bound by such binary concepts as male-female or masculine-feminine. They will learn that sex is a biological
